Four acclaimed poets: Hannah Lowe, Cheryl Moskowitz, Alan Murray, Richard Price; a powerful electronic score performed live by West End musical director Alastair Gavin; a widescreen filmed journey through London from day to night.

In the year of the 350th anniversary of the Great Fire, the mayoral election, and the current debate on London's accelerating speed of development, this new show will evoke its heat, transformation and possibilities.

A sensual and thought provoking evening of sharp words, expansive music and stunning visuals from an exciting new company.
